CMA - COURSE OUTLINE

Course Outline - For Class 12 Completed Students and College-Goers

Course Outline - For Graduates

PASSING CRITERIA:

CMA FOUNDATION : To pass the CMA Foundation examination, which comprises four papers, each carrying a total of 100 marks, candidates must achieve a minimum of 40% marks in each individual paper. Additionally, they need to secure an aggregate of 50% marks across all four papers combined (total marks: 400).

CMA INTERMEDIATE : The CMA Intermediate examination is divided into two groups, with each group consisting of four papers under the new scheme. Each paper in both Group I and Group II carries a total of 100 marks. To pass either Group I or Group II, a candidate must score at least 40% marks in each paper within that group. Furthermore, the candidate must obtain an overall aggregate of 50% marks in all the papers of that specific group (total marks per group: 400). Clearing both Group I and Group II is necessary to pass the CMA Intermediate level.

CMA FINAL : Similar to the Intermediate level, the CMA Final examination comprises two groups, with each group having four papers under the new scheme. Each paper in both Group III and Group IV carries a total of 100 marks. To pass either Group III or Group IV, a candidate is required to secure a minimum of 40% marks in each paper within the respective group. Moreover, an aggregate of 50% marks in the total of all papers within that group (total marks per group: 400) must be attained. Passing both Group III and Group IV is mandatory for successfully completing the CMA Final level.
